

THE MEANS OF GRACE

Quite simply, the Means of Grace are the methods that God has ordained, by which He will be glorified in the growth in grace of the Christian. Many seek to please God and grow spiritually using their own methods and find themselves becoming spiritually stagnant. This is unsurprising. God himself has ordained that the Word, the Sacraments and Prayer are those particular means, whereby he opens the doors of heaven and blesses his people. Come and find out more at Shiloh Presbyterian Church.

NOVEMBER 3 - 5, 2017

SHILOH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
REFORMATION CONFERENCE

524 E WHITAKER MILL RD
RALEIGH, NC 27608
SHILOHOPC.ORG // 919.578.1331

1 FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3 // 7:00PM

THE SACRAMENTS
BAPTISM

2 SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4 // 9:30AM

THE SACRAMENTS
THE LORD'S SUPPER

3 SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4 // 10:45AM

PRAYER
ROMANS 15:30-33

4 SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 5 // 9:30AM

MORNING WORSHIP // 2 TIM. 4:1-5
THE WORD // "GOD'S MAJOR MEDIUM"

5 SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 5 // 5:30PM

EVENING WORSHIP // PSALM 119:9-16
THE WORD // "PROFITING FROM THE WORD"

Dr. Joseph Pipa is President of Greenville Presbyterian Theological Seminary, and Professor of Historical & Systematic Theology. Formerly, Dr. Pipa served as pastor of Tchula Presbyterian Church in Tchula, Mississippi (1970-1977), wrote as a staff member for Great Commission Publications (1977-1979), taught as a Guest Lecturer at Westminster Theological Seminary Philadelphia (1978-1979), pastored Covenant PCA in Houston, Texas (1979-1990), taught as Associate Professor of Practical Theology and Director of Advanced Studies at Westminster Theological Seminary California (1990-1997), where he pastored Trinity PCA in Escondido, California (1991-1997). He has written extensively on topics related to Systematic Theology, Historical Theology, Preaching, and Christian Living, and contributed to a number of anthologies and popular Christian publications.